

APARTMENTS Paris Montmartre

16, avenue Rachel Paris

Located in a residential street 2 steps away from place Clichy, the Citadines at Montmatre sits at the foot of the Butte Montmartre, close to the Moulin Rouge and the Europe and Trinité business areas.

Montmartre may be famous for its maze of narrow streets and staircases, its vineyard and authentic village atmosphere, where imposing Haussmann and 1930s style buildings rub shoulders with charming houses and tiny gardens; But it's also renowned for its night life- the multitude of cabarets, including the Moulin Rouge, cafés with resident portraitists, cinemas and bars ensure the partying never stops.

Absolute musts: a walk at random through the streets of Montmartre to see its villas and old-fashioned artist studios

This well known area of Paris is famous for a variety of things- Butte, the highest point in the city, with its stairways and labyrinth of narrow streets and vines, the museum of Montmartre, place du Tertre, Moulin Rouge and Sacré-Coeur.

The air here is infused with the bohemian spirit of artists like Utrillo, Toulouse-Lautrec and singer Dalida who used to live, work and play in this neighbourhood. Today, the streets thrive with cabarets, cafés, restaurants, cinemas and boutiques in their spirit.
