

APARTMENTS Paris Tour Eiffel

132, boulevard de Grenelle Paris

Located in the former village of Grenelle, not far from UNESCO, the government offices at place de Fontenoy, the dynamic area of Quai André Citroën, Quai Branly and Porte de Versailles exhibition parks, this Citadines property here is smack in the centre of a hotbed of activities.

Nearby, a bustling market-place heaves with activity. This shopping area is also full of cafés, brasseries with that special Parisian magic. Nearby, the Swiss village and its antique dealers as well as a host of other attractions make this area at the foot of the Eiffel Tower so popular.

Absolute musts: the Musée Rodin, housed in the 18th-century mansion the sculptor used to live in.

Typically Parisian, the area is filled with narrow streets, open-air markets, traditional cafés and restaurants. Stroll around the wide green areas at Champ-de-Mars, the banks of the Seine just 2 metro stations away and Invalides, also 2 stations away. Parc des Princes is directly accessible by metro.
